Jim Dandy to Host Skipper Frank Today

Skipper Frank Herman of TV Cartoon Carousel, with his sidekick, Julius, will make appearances at the two Jim Dandy markets in the area today.

The ventriloquist and TV entertainer will appear at the Lomita market, 24911 Western Ave., at 10 a.m. this morning, and at the Torrance market, 2515 Torrance Blvd., at 11:30 a.m.

He broke into show business in 1931 as a "boy magician," made later appearances as an actor, magician, and ventriloquist, and in the Army, headed the Army Film Exchange and Armed Forces Radio Service for the area. He also emceed the California Hobby Show, taught Kirk Douglas how to juggle for the movie, "The Juggler," had the lead in "The Drunkard," and served as a radio entertainer.

Together with Julius, the dummy which he carved himself, he now presides over the Cartoon Carousel, eight hours a week on TV.

AGENCY NAMED . . . Appointment of the Ed Belford Agency to direct advertising and public relations for the Buyers' Merchandise Marts was announced yesterday by Obby Gribow, president, as the firm began its "open door policy" which will allow residents to visit the Buyers' Mart in Hawthorne without membership or discount cards. Shown are Ed Belford; Gribow; Sam Jacoby, general manager for Buyers' Mart, and John Fish, account executive for the firm.

New Catholic High School Slated for Sept. 16 Opening

The new Bishop Montgomery High School, which will serve Catholic students throughout the South Bay area, will open on Sept. 16, according to the principal, Father Michael J. McNulty.

Originally scheduled to open on Sept. 10, the opening was delayed a week by the 47-day strike of plumbers, sheet metal workers, and hod carriers this summer. It will house 285 freshman students this year, with one class to be added each year until a final enrollment of 1300 or 1400 is reached.

Building Slated
Father McNulty said the building now includes two large classroom units, chapel, administration section, and locker-shower building. All except the locker structure, which is concrete, are of modern post and beam construction. Other buildings, including an auditorium-gymnasium, cafeteria, shops and laboratory, music, and art buildings, will be added in the future.

The courses to be offered include those standard in most Catholic schools, he said, with a wide variety of courses in both shop work and business training for students who will not go to college.

One new feature of the curriculum will include a group guidance course in moral and spiritual values.

Apply Learning
The class is designed to help students apply what they learn to their daily activities, instead of merely putting facts in their heads," Father McNulty said.

Students will have an option of taking Latin, French, or Spanish.

Teachers at the school will include four Conventual Franciscan Fathers, four Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet, and two lay teachers.

Although the school is primarily for Catholics, Father McNulty said, there will be eight non-Catholics enrolled in the first class. Non-Catholics will be admitted if there are vacancies, he reported.

The new principal has been assistant pastor at Holy Family Church, Glendale, where he also taught in a Catholic Girls School.

Obituaries

Dorothy Mary King
Mrs. Dorothy Mary King, 71, of 16714 Cerise Ave., died Friday after a long illness.

Recitation of the Holy Rosary was held Monday at 7 p.m. in the Colonial Chapel of the Hardin and Flanagan Mortuary and Mass was celebrated Tuesday at 8:30 a.m. at St. Catherine Labourer Church by the Fr. Raymond Deppe, pastor.

Mrs. King was born in San Francisco and had made Southern California her home for several years.

She leaves her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Gosner of Torrance, and two grandchildren.

Registration For Temple School Slated

Registration of students for the Temple Menorah Religious School will be held on Monday, Sept. 16, from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. at the Temple, 112 N. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach.

Classes will begin Saturday, Sept. 21, in the educational wing of the Methodist Church, Torrance Blvd. and Broadway, Redondo Beach. The curriculum and activities will be under the direction of Principal Norman Horowitz and a qualified teaching staff. Rabbi Henri Front will conduct Hebrew classes and assist in the activities.

Further information can be obtained from Mrs. M. Feinberg, religious school chairman, or Mrs. B. Kogan.
